BOULTON--WOODWARD--PHILLIPS THE TICKET

LOCAL TALENT IN MUSICAL COMEDY AT OPERA HOUSE

DuBois Society Young People
Will Present "Chinese Honey-
moon" Friday Evening

Production Scored Big Hit in DuBois
Before Large Audiences—Tickets
Are Now on Sale.

The following account of the first production of "A Chinese Honeymoon" in DuBois is taken from the Courier of May 9:

"A Chinese Honeymoon," a local production that has been anticipated eagerly for the past several weeks and in regard to which there has been considerable favorable comment, was produced yesterday afternoon and last evening at the Avenue theatre and fulfilled in every respect all the good things that was said of it in the advance notices. It would be trite to say that it "was the best local talent ever produced" so we are not going to use that expression, but it was that and more. It was good from beginning to end; it was not "spotty" like local talents usually are. It sustained the interest throughout and the high grade of work prevailed from the first chorus to the last one. The show was under the direction of Phil Kearns, who has done some fine work in the past, but it is doubtful if he ever scored a bigger success than he has in "A Chinese Honeymoon." He had the chorus working in fine shape, the solos were given in an excellent manner, the topical songs went big, and the dancing was an unusually fine feature. Every detail of the show had been looked after in a manner that insured success.

The audiences both yesterday afternoon and last evening were large. That they appreciated the show was evident from the hearty applause that greeted the efforts of the members of the company and the numerous "encores" that were demanded. A particular feature of the show was the comedy work. All of the comedy roles were in good hands, but the work of Miss Florence Melvin as Fifi took precedence. Miss Melvin established a reputation that will be lasting. She went into the work with a vim and some of the stunts that she went through during the performance brought forth big laughs. She is a natural comedian and anyone watching her work will be highly pleased.

The role of the emperor was in the hands of James J. Hetherington, who always had a leading part in local productions. The part was eminently suited to Mr. Mack and his work throughout. There was considerable comedy in his lines and he brought it out in the best possible manner.

Bly Hetherington, another favorite was Lord Chancellor, and acted up to the part in every particular. Mike Gillung, as Lord High Admiral, had an awful time saving being tickled to death, and in the operation tickled the risibilities of the audience by his clever work. Byron Foster, as Tom Hatherington, in love with Soo Soo, played the tenor-lover part in a manner that left little to be desired, save a little more volume in his voice, it being rather difficult to hear him at times. As a lover, however, he was all to the good. P. V. Daly, the man on a honeymoon, enacted the part of Mr. Pineapple, and delighted his friends by the clever manner in which he put over his lines. He was always at home, always ready for an

CRUISER DRIVEN BY HEAVY GALE GROUNDED TODAY

Despite Heavy Seas, Little
Damage Was Done to Cruiser
and No Lives Lost

Earlier Reports Stating Eight Lives
Were Lost Proved to be Unfounded
—Cruiser Was Grounded on Nantucket Shoal.

Boston, May 17.—(By United Press.)—Driven by a terrific gale which swept the New England coast early today, the United States cruiser, San Francisco, grounded on the Nantucket Shoal at five a. m., according to radial messages reaching the navy yard here.

Despite the high seas that were running, no damage was done to the cruiser and she floated off a few hours later. Earlier reports stated eight men lost their lives, but this report was later proved to be unfounded. The navy yard reports no loss of life.

Eight men are reported to have perished when the United States cruiser, San Francisco, ran aground on Great Round Shoal in Nuyard Sound early today. Reports of the accident reached here by wireless. Details were lacking. The battleship New Hampshire, the coast guard cutters, Gresham and Acushnet, and the submarine tender, Melville, are rushing to the assistance of the San Francisco. A terrific gale is playing off the coast, the wireless stating.

New York, May 17.—(By United Press.)—The commandant at the Brooklyn Navy Yard announced at 10:50 that the cruiser "San Francisco" is now afloat. Officers at the navy yard would make no statement as to the possible loss of life.

Emergency and contributed greatly to the success of the play.

Miss Helen Munch, as Mrs. Pineapple, was a charming bride. She had several solos and her splendid voice was heard with the greatest of appreciation. Her acting was most enjoyable. Mrs. Pineapple was attended by four bridesmaids, Misses Mary Moot, Leona Klewans, Hazel Smith and Helen Dailey, who wore some charming gowns. Jeanette McNeil, as the official mother-in-law, had a part that afforded great opportunity for promoting the success of the play, and she did her work in a highly appreciated manner. Miss Agnes Kearns, as Soo Soo, niece of the emperor, showed excellent training and her acting was high class. She had several solos and delighted her hearers. Soo Soo was attended by Misses Phyllis Irwin and Laura Osborn as maids of honor, and they fulfilled their parts most acceptably.

Miss Katherine Lundergan as Mi Mi, a waitress, brought out all that was in her part, and also sang several solos in a manner that brought forth applause. Miss Melvin as Fifi, was a scream and her presence on the stage was always good for a laugh.

The Famous Dancing Dolls proved to be a big hit of the show. They were composed of pretty, light-footed and graceful girls and their dancing was so excellent that encore after encore was insisted upon every time they appeared. Those dolls were as follows: Misses Billman, Hindman, Morris, DeArment, Dunn, Hoy, Kirschwartz and Moloney. Another that went big was the song of all nations. It served to introduce some unusually good dancing, in which Miss Maloney, a French girl, and Miss Morris as the Scotch girl, and Miss Cricks as the Spanish girl, featured.

Miss LaRue appeared in this number as the English girl and was escorted by S. Henry Moulthrop, in his latest "sport" clothes. Miss Van Tassel appeared as Columbia, this number being very patriotic and was wildly applauded. The Yankee Girls were impersonated by the dancing dolls dressed in Boy Scout uniforms.

The singing throughout the show was of a very high class, and showed the excellent training that had been done by Phil Kearns. The entire show is one well worthy of patronage and it is expected that the Avenue theatre will be crowded to the doors this evening.—DuBois Courier.

CASEMENT IS HELD FOR TRIAL BEFORE THE HIGH COURT

Committed With Bailey For Trial
For Life on Charge of
High Treason

Preliminary Hearing Ended this Afternoon—Defense of Caseiment Has
Not Been Made Public.

London, May 17.—(By United Press.)—Sir Roger Caseiment and Daniel Bailey were committed for trial on charges of high treason at the conclusion of the preliminary hearing. Both Sir Roger and Bailey will now go on trial for their lives in the high court of England. It convicted they probably will be sentenced to death. Caseiment being given the privilege accorded his rank of being hanged with a silken cord.

The nature of Caseiment's defense is still a mystery. Counsel for Bailey will attempt to show that the former Irish soldier knew nothing of the character of the undertaking upon which he embarked on a German U-boat and speedily informed the authorities of the plan to foment a rebellion when he learned the nature of the plot.

London, May 17.—(By United Press.)—Maps found in the possession of Sir Roger Caseiment supported the contention that the plans for the Irish rebellion originated in the German war office. Colonel Gordon of the British war office intelligence department, testified today.

Gordon said he had examined the maps of Ireland carried by Caseiment when he landed from a German submarine and that none of them were painted in Great Britain. They gave certain details as to landscape which showed they had been made under the direction of the German war office and thus supported the belief that the German government played a prominent part in the scheme of the plan the rebellion.

AMERICAN TROOPS RESCUE
CAPTIVES FROM RAIDERS

Negotiations Were Being Made for
Exchange with Bandits

Marathon, Texas, May 17.—(By United Press.)—Jesse Deemer, restaurant and store keeper, and Monroe Payne, negro, captured by the Glen Spring raiders, have been rescued by American troops from a band in Mexico according to reports.

Advices this afternoon stated the Americans are being brought back to the border by a cavalry squad. Rescue of the pair leaves Lieutenant Colonel Alvarez and two other Mexican natives in a precarious situation.

Negotiations were started by expeditionary officers to exchange the trio for Deemer and Payne but the Mexicans made no response. The Mexicans have been identified as members of the band that swept the Boquilla section on the night of the Glen Springs raids. Authorities here expect they will be turned over to Sheriff Walton for trial.

BOY IN SEARCH OF WORK FOUND, PARTLY FROZEN

Men Returning From Court House
Find Him on Dimeling Steps

This morning about two o'clock, a boy by the name of Philips from near Sanborn was found asleep near the entrance of the Dimeling hotel by a group of men returning from the court house where they received the election returns. One of the men recognized the boy and as he was numb with the cold, took him to his home for the night.

The boy stated that he had come to Clearfield in search of work and had failed to find any. He was without money.

State and County Returns Slow, But Indicate That Organization Men of Both Parties Have Won

BRATTON REMAINS COUNTY CHAIRMAN

Harry Boulton
Americus H. Woodward
Joseph E. Phillips.

Clearfield county cast the smallest primary vote in the state yesterday with its eyes shut to practically every candidate save the legislative fight in the Republican party. The Penrose-Brumbaugh struggle for the state delegation played no part in the day's proceedings, nor did any of the other contests on the Republican side receive serious consideration of the voters.

At noon today Harry Boulton, of Houtsdale, was comfortably in the lead on the Republican ticket for the legislature. Phillips was second, with an advantage of 49 over Americus H. Woodward, with but fifteen precincts to hear from.

The remaining vote can make no change in the three candidates, but may reverse the positions of Phillips voters did not mark their ballots as all for delegates at large, the job being too complicated for them.

Senator Knox received a supplementary vote of small proportion, according to such counts as are available.

The Democratic Situation
In the Democratic party it appears that G. W. Bell, of Greenwood township, William J. Hoover, of Houtsdale, and H. Reed, of Lawrence township, will be the candidates for the legislature. The vote is not completely counted. John P. Sheet and Judge Orvis, without opposition, will be delegates to the national convention. Judge Orvis appears to have a healthy lead over Bonniwell for the senatorial nomination. A. Mitchell Palmer is leading in the race for the national committee. Wm. E. Tubbs, of Clearfield, unopposed, will be the Democratic nominee for congress.

Reports received by local Democratic leaders indicate that the Houtsdale slate has won throughout the state.

Party Slates Win
Harrisburg, May 17.—(By United Press.) Returns from 47 counties this morning indicated that both the Republican and Democratic organizations had put through their slates in the primaries yesterday.

James F. Fletcher, of Clearfield, is a clean winner over Edias Phillips, of DuBois, for member of the state committee, with a majority of more than 200.

In the vote for national delegates there was evidenced a general disposition to support the county candidates, William I. Swoope, of Clearfield, and John C. Arnold, of DuBois, irrespective of their stand on the question of pledges to support the popular choice for president. Swoope was the unpledged delegate, and Arnold was the Brumbaugh candidate.

Their lead over Gaffney and Mayo, both of McKean county, will be the largest majority of the primary.

Charles H. Rowland of Philipsburg, unopposed for renomination for congress, received less than a party vote in Clearfield county.

The vote for auditor general, state treasurer, and representatives in congress at large will not be determined before tomorrow, as the counters made no effort last night or today to determine how the vote stood for the various aspirants.

Quite a remarkable showing was made for Theodore Roosevelt for president, several hundred voters writing the name of the Colonel in beneath that of Governor Brumbaugh, whose vote was larger, it is believed, solely by reason of his name appearing on the ballot.

The Ford peace vote in Clearfield was not more than twenty-five voters taking the trouble to write in the name of the latest apostle of peace.

Indications are that the vote of delegates at large to the national convention will be about evenly divided between Brumbaugh and Penrose, in no case being heavy. Many of the

A NEW BANK FOR FARMERS.

The United States, which is the richest agricultural country on earth, is finally to have farm-land banks. Measures creating such banks have passed both branches of Congress, although these bills vary in a number of particulars. The main features, however, are identical in principle. Generally speaking, the House measure is the more liberal. One excellent point in it is that loans of $100 may be made. The Senate bill minimum for loans is $200, which is too high. Broadly speaking, the proposed twelve land banks will be scattered throughout the country, and they will lend money to farmers at not more than 6 per cent. interest. Loans will be made through local loan associations, which will place mortgages upon the land of the farmers who borrow. These mortgages will be taken by the banks, which in turn will advance the money.

There is need in the United States for land banks. Obviously an industry which yearly produces an output of nearly ten billion dollars is entitled to better banking facilities than it now possesses. Moreover, farmers in remote sections of the West, South and Southwest, where banks are scarce and farms are numerous, ought to be protected against the bank sharks which, according to Comptroller Williams, have been charging from 100 to 1200 per cent. on small loans. It is in such remote regions that the land banks will be the greatest boon, although they will be a great convenience in the more densely populated districts. If the Wilson administration can put upon the statute books this piece of advanced and constructive legislation, it will be a highly honorable achievement.—Public Ledger.

BIG CIRCUS COMING

Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace Shows are To Appear Here Soon

Peacocks and pink, lemonade will soon be ripe and the odor of sawdust tanbark will permeate the air. The Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace circus, rayed, grained, gladdened galaxy in all the world, is coming to Clearfield on Wednesday, June 7 for two performances. This year the big show—in reality there are two shows—will be aboard three special trains, the first ever used to transport a circus aggregation.

The country for miles around is all aglow with the noisy circus bills of purple and gold, and the downtown billboard are the merry upon which thousands of eyes feast their gaze. Father Time is always on the job; scenes come and go, but somehow or other the circus is just the circus, and its popularity never wanes. The joys and memories of circus day keep a steady hold upon the heart-strings of the American people.

All through the long months of winter Agents of the Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus have been scouring the continents of the earth securing novelties and features. The performance this year will be entirely new. More than 100 acrobats, gymnasts, riders, contortionists and athletes, together with fifty clowns, compose the ensemble. In addition the big show is augmented with Carl Hagenbeck's trained wild animal exhibition. Hundreds of wild animals, lions, leopards, tigers, panthers, jaguars, elephants, zebras, monkeys, etc., will constitute that department.

Performances will be given at 2 and 8 p. m. Drums to the melodious paradises will be opened in hour caravans. A three-mile-long street parade will leave the show grounds at 10 o'clock the day of the exhibition and will pass through the principal streets.

DuBois Society Young People
Will Present "Chinese Honey-
moon" Friday Evening

Production Scored Big Hit in DuBois
Before Large Audiences—Tickets
Are Now on Sale.

The following account of the first production of "A Chinese Honeymoon" in DuBois is taken from the Courier of May 9:

"A Chinese Honeymoon," a local production that has been anticipated eagerly for the past several weeks and in regard to which there has been considerable favorable comment, was produced yesterday afternoon and last evening at the Avenue theatre and fulfilled in every respect all the good things that was said of it in the advance notices. It would be trite to say that it "was the best local talent ever produced" so we are not going to use that expression, but it was that and more. It was good from beginning to end; it was not "spotty" like local talents usually are. It sustained the interest throughout and the high grade of work prevailed from the first chorus to the last one. The show was under the direction of Phil Kearns, who has done some fine work in the past, but it is doubtful if he ever scored a bigger success than he has in "A Chinese Honeymoon." He had the chorus working in fine shape, the solos were given in an excellent manner, the topical songs went big, and the dancing was an unusually fine feature. Every detail of the show had been looked after in a manner that insured success.

The audiences both yesterday afternoon and last evening were large. That they appreciated the show was evident from the hearty applause that greeted the efforts of the members of the company and the "admirable" encores that were demanded. A particular feature of the show was the comedy work. All of the comedy roles were in good hands, but the work of Miss Florence Melvin as Fifi took precedence. Miss Melvin established a reputation that will be lasting. She went into the work with a vim and some of the stunts that she went through during the performance brought forth big laughs. She is a natural comedian and anyone watching her work will be highly pleased.

The role of the emperor was in the hands of James J. Hetherington, who always had a leading part in local productions. The part was eminently suited to Mr. Mack and his work throughout. There was considerable comedy in his lines and he brought it out in the best possible manner.

Bly Hetherington, another favorite was Lord Chancellor, and acted up to the part in every particular. Mike Gillung, as Lord High Admiral, had an awful time saving being tickled to death, and in the operation tickled the risibilities of the audience by his clever work. Byron Foster, as Tom Hatherington, in love with Soo Soo, played the tenor-lover part in a manner that left little to be desired, save a little more volume in his voice, it being rather difficult to hear him at times. As a lover, however, he was all to the good. P. V. Daly, the man on a honeymoon, enacted the part of Mr. Pineapple, and delighted his friends by the clever manner in which he put over his lines. He was always at home, always ready for an

Despite Heavy Seas, Little
Damage Was Done to Cruiser
and No Lives Lost

Earlier Reports Stating Eight Lives
Were Lost Proved to be Unfounded
—Cruiser Was Grounded on Nantucket Shoal.

Boston, May 17.—(By United Press.)—Driven by a terrific gale which swept the New England coast early today, the United States cruiser, San Francisco, grounded on the Nantucket Shoal at five a. m., according to radial messages reaching the navy yard here.

Despite the high seas that were running, no damage was done to the cruiser and she floated off a few hours later. Earlier reports stated eight men lost their lives, but this report was later proved to be unfounded. The navy yard reports no loss of life.

Eight men are reported to have perished when the United States cruiser, San Francisco, ran aground on Great Round Shoal in Nuyard Sound early today. Reports of the accident reached here by wireless. Details were lacking. The battleship New Hampshire, the coast guard cutters, Gresham and Acushnet, and the submarine tender, Melville, are rushing to the assistance of the San Francisco. A terrific gale is playing off the coast, the wireless stating.

New York, May 17.—(By United Press.)—The commandant at the Brooklyn Navy Yard announced at 10:50 that the cruiser "San Francisco" is now afloat. Officers at the navy yard would make no statement as to the possible loss of life.

Emergency and contributed greatly to the success of the play.

Miss Helen Munch, as Mrs. Pineapple, was a charming bride. She had several solos and her splendid voice was heard with the greatest of appreciation. Her acting was most enjoyable. Mrs. Pineapple was attended by four bridesmaids, Misses Mary Moot, Leona Klewans, Hazel Smith and Helen Dailey, who wore some charming gowns. Jeanette McNeil, as the official mother-in-law, had a part that afforded great opportunity for promoting the success of the play, and she did her work in a highly appreciated manner. Miss Agnes Kearns, as Soo Soo, niece of the emperor, showed excellent training and her acting was high class. She had several solos and delighted her hearers. Soo Soo was attended by Misses Phyllis Irwin and Laura Osborn as maids of honor, and they fulfilled their parts most acceptably.

Miss Katherine Lundergan as Mi Mi, a waitress, brought out all that was in her part, and also sang several solos in a manner that brought forth applause. Miss Melvin as Fifi, was a scream and her presence on the stage was always good for a laugh.

The Famous Dancing Dolls proved to be a big hit of the show. They were composed of pretty, light-footed and graceful girls and their dancing was so excellent that encore after encore was insisted upon every time they appeared. Those dolls were as follows: Misses Billman, Hindman, Morris, DeArment, Dunn, Hoy, Kirschwartz and Moloney. Another that went big was the song of all nations. It served to introduce some unusually good dancing, in which Miss Maloney, a French girl, and Miss Morris as the Scotch girl, and Miss Cricks as the Spanish girl, featured.

Miss LaRue appeared in this number as the English girl and was escorted by S. Henry Mouthrop, in his latest "sport" clothes. Miss Van Tassel appeared as Columbia, this number being very patriotic and was wildly applauded. The Yankee Girls were impersonated by the dancing dolls dressed in Boy Scout uniforms.

The singing throughout the show was of a very high class, and showed the excellent training that had been done by Phil Kearns. The entire show is one well worthy of patronage and it is expected that the Avenue theatre will be crowded to the doors this evening.—DuBois Courier.

CASEMENT IS HELD FOR TRIAL BEFORE THE HIGH COURT

Committed With Bailey For Trial
For Life on Charge of
High Treason

Preliminary Hearing Ended this Afternoon—Defense of Caseiment Has
Not Been Made Public.

London, May 17.—(By United Press.)—Sir Roger Caseiment and Daniel Bailey were committed for trial on charges of high treason at the conclusion of the preliminary hearing. Both Sir Roger and Bailey will now go on trial for their lives in the high court of England. It convicted they probably will be sentenced to death. Caseiment being given the privilege accorded his rank of being hanged with a silken cord.

The nature of Caseiment's defense is still a mystery. Counsel for Bailey will attempt to show that the former Irish soldier knew nothing of the character of the undertaking upon which he embarked on a German U-boat and speedily informed the authorities of the plan to foment a rebellion when he learned the nature of the plot.

London, May 17.—(By United Press.)—Maps found in the possession of Sir Roger Caseiment supported the contention that the plans for the Irish rebellion originated in the German war office. Colonel Gordon of the British war office intelligence department, testified today.

Gordon said he had examined the maps of Ireland carried by Caseiment when he landed from a German submarine and that none of them were painted in Great Britain. They gave certain details as to landscape which showed they had been made under the direction of the German war office and thus supported the belief that the German government played a prominent part in the scheme of the plan the rebellion.

AMERICAN TROOPS RESCUE
CAPTIVES FROM RAIDERS

Negotiations Were Being Made for
Exchange with Bandits

Marathon, Texas, May 17.—(By United Press.)—Jesse Deemer, restaurant and store keeper, and Monroe Payne, negro, captured by the Glen Spring raiders, have been rescued by American troops from a band in Mexico according to reports.

Advices this afternoon stated the Americans are being brought back to the border by a cavalry squad. Rescue of the pair leaves Lieutenant Colonel Alvarez and two other Mexican natives in a precarious situation.

Negotiations were started by expeditionary officers to exchange the trio for Deemer and Payne but the Mexicans made no response. The Mexicans have been identified as members of the band that swept the Boquilla section on the night of the Glen Springs raids. Authorities here expect they will be turned over to Sheriff Walton for trial.

BOY IN SEARCH OF WORK FOUND, PARTLY FROZEN

Men Returning From Court House
Find Him on Dimeling Steps

This morning about two o'clock, a boy by the name of Philips from near Sanborn was found asleep near the entrance of the Dimeling hotel by a group of men returning from the court house where they received the election returns. One of the men recognized the boy and as he was numb with the cold, took him to his home for the night.

The boy stated that he had come to Clearfield in search of work and had failed to find any. He was without money.

State and County Returns Slow, But Indicate That Organization Men of Both Parties Have Won

BRATTON REMAINS COUNTY CHAIRMAN

Harry Boulton
Americus H. Woodward
Joseph E. Phillips.

Clearfield county cast the smallest primary vote in the state yesterday with its eyes shut to practically every candidate save the legislative fight in the Republican party. The Penrose-Brumbaugh struggle for the state delegation played no part in the day's proceedings, nor did any of the other contests on the Republican side receive serious consideration of the voters.

At noon today Harry Boulton, of Houtsdale, was comfortably in the lead on the Republican ticket for the legislature. Phillips was second, with an advantage of 49 over Americus H. Woodward, with but fifteen precincts to hear from.

The remaining vote can make no change in the three candidates, but may reverse the positions of Phillips

THE VOTE
(Including all but seven districts and a total outstanding vote of not more than 60)

Harry Boulton	1536
Jos. E. Phillips	1413
A. H. Woodward	1335
W. E. Peterson	1103
A. S. Mouthrop	941
G. M. Alcorn	813
J. W. Ruffner	625
E. H. Albertson	431

Boulton leads Phillips 123; Phillips leads Woodward 78; Woodward leads Peterson 232; Peterson leads Mouthrop 162.

and Woodward, the difference between them being so slight as to admit of any possibility when the official count is made. Boulton, with more than 1400 votes, will retain the lead in the final count, as the fifteen precincts to be heard from cannot make any material change in his standing.

The fight for the county chairmanship between Milford Bratton, of Clearfield and A. L. Edwards, of Oscoda, was closer than was expected, Bratton's lead at noon being less than 200.

James F. Fletcher, of Clearfield, is a clean winner over Edias Phillips, of DuBois, for member of the state committee, with a majority of more than 200.

In the vote for national delegates there was evidenced a general disposition to support the county candidates, William I. Swoope, of Clearfield, and John C. Arnold, of DuBois, irrespective of their stand on the question of pledges to support the popular choice for president. Swoope was the unpledged delegate, and Arnold was the Brumbaugh candidate. Their lead over Gaffney and Mayo, both of McKean county, will be the largest majority of the primary.

Charles H. Rowland of Philipsburg, unopposed for renomination for congress, received less than a party vote in Clearfield county.

The vote for auditor general, state treasurer, and representatives in congress at large will not be determined before tomorrow, as the counters made no effort last night or today to determine how the vote stood for the various aspirants.

Quite a remarkable showing was made for Theodore Roosevelt for president, several hundred voters writing the name of the Colonel in beneath that of Governor Brumbaugh, whose vote was larger, it is believed, solely by reason of his name appearing on the ballot.

The Ford peace vote in Clearfield was nil, not more than twenty-five voters taking the trouble to write in the name of the latest apostle of peace.

Indications are that the vote of delegates at large to the national convention will be about evenly divided between Brumbaugh and Penrose, in no case being heavy. Many of the voters did not mark their ballots at all for delegates at large, the job being too complicated for them.

Senator Knox received a comparatively small proportion of the vote according to such counts as are available.

The Democratic Situation

In the Democratic party it appears that G. W. Bell, of Greenwood township, William J. Hoover, of Houtsdale, and H. Reed, of Lawrence township, will be the candidates for the legislature. The vote is not completely counted. John P. Sheet and Judge Orvis, without opposition, will be delegates to the national convention. Judge Orvis appears to have a healthy lead over Bonniwell for the senatorial nomination. A. Mitchell Palmer is leading in the race for the national committee. Wm. E. Tubbs, of Clearfield, unopposed, will be the Democratic nominee for congress.

Reports received by local Democratic leaders indicate that the Brumbaugh slate has won throughout the state.

Party Slates Win

Harrisburg, May 17.—(By United Press.) Returns from 47 counties this morning indicated that both the Republican and Democratic organizations had put through their slates in the primaries yesterday. Penrose carried through most of his candidates for delegate over the Brumbaugh-Vare slate, but Brumbaugh pulled the largest vote for President. Henry Ford was a poor second. It is believed that complete returns will show that both organizations slates were successful. In Philadelphia the fight is still a stand-off between Penrose and the governor.

Returns from other counties in the 21st congressional district will not be available until tomorrow. A high vote everywhere is reported. Clearfield county returns thus far received indicate that Swoope and Gaffney have a comfortable lead, while Gaffney claims a comfortable lead in McKean county.

The W. C. T. U. will hold a week-end meeting on Friday afternoon at 2:30 in the Y. M. C. A. All meetings invited.

FOR MEN AND YOUNG MEN AT

400 Men's and Young Men's Suits without an equal anywhere for less than $15, $18 or $20. Your Choice for $10.

The Big Clothing Event of Clearfield

While in New York we bought at a startling reduction over 400 suits from one of the largest manufacturers of Men's and Young Men's Clothing. The manufacturer being unable to secure any more goods of these lots, in order to fill in sizes, was compelled to sell them. We were on the spot ready to buy, and took the entire lot at a low cash price. Every suit guaranteed all wool and hand tailored.

These suits will be on sale while they last at

Sale Starts Thursday Morning May 18th	$10	Sale Starts Thursday Morning May 18th

Suits made of the old-time Safe-Dye Cloth, not one of them can be duplicated at the price. We would have to get $18 and $20 for suits as good if bought today in regular set of sizes.

Many of these suits are just one or two of a kind, others include 3 or 4 of a pattern.

It is unusual to present opportunities like this at the height of the season. Wholesalers say we are "easy"---could just as well ask and get more. We are satisfied with a small profit---in order to make this the Clothing Event of Clearfield.

See these suits in our window tonight. Come in tomorrow and try them on. You will surely find your size and at a saving of from $5 to $10.
